Weaponizing Sexual Assault for Political Gain Must Stop!

The Moms March Movement joins Concerned Women for America in Lower Senate Park in Washington, DC on September 27th at 8:30 a.m. to Show Support for Supreme Court Nominee Brett Kavanaugh

WASHINGTON, DC – Kimberly Fletcher, president of Moms for America and the Moms March Movement, is calling on all women who care about due process, the Constitution, and upholding the cornerstone of American justice—innocent until proven guilty—to rally on Thursday, September 27th to show support for Supreme Court nominee Brett Kavanaugh.

Fletcher issued the following statement in support of Supreme Court Justice Brett Kavanaugh:

“For five decades radical feminists have been maliciously denigrating our men and boys. It’s time for Mama Bears to unite and stand up to defend our husbands and sons--and our daughters--against radical feminists weaponizing sexual assault for political gain. When a woman can just say something may have happened 30 years ago and members of Congress, the media, and Hollywood start a blind ‘I Believe Her’ campaign as a means to destroy a man’s life without any evidence or corroboration, it puts the word of every woman and girl in question and creates a propensity for any man to be accused. We have to stand against radical feminism. If we don’t it could be our son or husband whose life is being destroyed.”
