November 2nd & 3rd

Florence, Texas

In the last few years we have seen a dramatic downward turn in our culture. Anger and violence have escalated, statues have been toppled, memorials defaced, and there seems no end in sight. America is facing a cultural crisis of epic proportions and there is only one thing that can stop the madness and turn the tide—bring in the Moms!

On September 23, 2017 a national movement of mothers was launched in the Heartland of America and across the nation to reclaim our culture for the future of our children at the Mom's March for America in Omaha, Nebraska. Thousands of women joined in person or via livestream in over 3,000 cities and every state in America. Speakers at our inaugural event included Sarah Palin, Missy Robertson (Duck Dynasty) and Candy Carson (wife of Dr. Ben Carson)

At the request of thousands of moms throughout the nation, we are doing it again!

The 2018 Mom's March for America will be held at the Vineyard at Florence—a breathtakingly beautiful estate in Florence, Texas (just North of historic Georgetown and south of Fort Hood.) Inspired by Old World Italian architecture, the Vineyard combines European charm with Texas hospitality providing the perfect location for a weekend retreat for moms gathering together to be enlightened, inspired and empowered.
